All Ready for the Big Fight this Afternoon

Yesterday Larry Gordon and Kid Krant put the finishing touches to their training, which was of a light nature, and now are ready for the twenty-round boxing match which comes off at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Big Arena. Krant indulged in rope jumping, weight pulling, bag punching and also boxed two rounds with Kid Crawford. Gordon only did a few brief stunts with the rope, weights and bag and a little shadow boxing. Both men are in the pink of condition and there is no doubt but that the mill will be one of the best that has taken place in Tonopah for some time. Speculation is rife as to who will be the winner, for it is an impossibility to make a prediction from the past records of both men, who each have a long list of victories to their credit.

Every ticket issued for the contest entitles the holder to a membership in the Tonopah Athletic club, which is under the management of James Kelly. Reports received yesterday indicate that the house will be a record-breaking one and the Goldfield sports have chartered a special train, which will arrive here at 12:30 this afternoon. A large number of Goldfield newspapermen have also signified their intention to be present, as both fighters are well and favorably known in the southern city.

Jack McDonough, the popular referee, of Goldfield, will decide who will bring home the turkey. Mr. McDonough is probably the best known sporting man in southern Nevada and his decisions have never been questioned. It will be remembered that it was Jack McDonough who refereed the Mustain-Sullivan scrap and it was he who warned Sullivan not to loaf during the fight. This was when Sullivan had adopted the loafing tactics and intended to finish the last round in a strong condition.

The preliminary between George Odell and Kid Crawford will be a hot number, and will start promptly at 2 o'clock. There will be a large number of ladies present and the management guarantees that all will be treated in a courteous manner. The returns from the Ketchel-Papke fight will be received at the ringside and announced between rounds. Krant will have in his corner as advisers and seconds, Willard Bean, Kid Arnold and Kid McNamara.

Gordon will be seconded by Jack Fogerty, Dennis Butler and Stubbs Gordon.

The tickets for the smoker are on sale at the O. P. saloon and the Big Casino.

BASKET BALL GAME FRIDAY

The students of the Tonopah high school have accepted the challenge issued them by the Tonopah Basketball club and the two teams will play a game on Friday night at the pavilion. Both teams are indulging in daily practice and the game should be a good one. This will be the first basketball game in Tonopah, and will undoubtedly be largely attended.

COUNTERFEITING GANG IS ROUNDED UP AT GOLDFIELD

GOLDFIELD, Nov. 25.—One of the cleverest investigations in the history of the city was completed last evening by Deputy Sheriff Jack Sweeney and William Kelly, when they booked Jack Russell, manager for Peter Jackson, the pugilist, and Frank Ironsides, alias "Scotty," in jail on the charge of counterfeiting.

The two men, according to the officers, will have a tremendous lot of explaining to do when their hearing arrives. In the home of Russell, near Seventh and Miner streets, late last night, a complete outfit for the manufacture of spurious coins was unearthed. Ironsides was taken to the Russell home, being known as Russell's friend, and the result of the investigation was highly gratifying. Almost every known appurtenance for the manufacture of spurious coin was in evidence, including moulds, dies, acids, blowers, plaster of paris, etc. There were also found three bogus $1 pieces. There is evidence that considerable of the phony coin has been spread over the city.

The Russell home also disclosed the paraphernalia of a short card man, including a mechanical device for a clever hold-up. Not only this, but Sweeney and Kelly found crooked dice and a crucible for melting ore. Both Russell and Ironsides are said to be morphine fiends, and a "hop can" was plainly in view when entrance was effected to the house. Ironsides even begged the officers to give him a slug of the drug. Seeing that the game was up Ironsides attempted to destroy some of the incriminating evidence against himself and Russell by hurling portable goods into a fireplace, but he was detected in time.

Russell, who is the manager of Peter Jackson, a colored pugilist, was in the Northern saloon playing craps. While thus engaged he is said to have shoved two bogus dollars across the board. Deputies Sweeney and Kelly were close by and endeavored to put Russell under arrest. Russell refused to be searched, and while on the sidewalk is said to have thrown away a bunch of coins with one hand, while with the other he struck Kelly in the jaw. Kelly came right back, and the Sweeney took a hand in the affair. Sweeney was also compelled to land a blow before Russell could be jailed. Russell is said to have threatened openly to kill not only Sweeney and Kelly, but also Oscar Olsen, of the Northern.
